What is the best diagnosis?

A. Chondroid syrinigoma
B. Eccrine spiradenoma
C. Apocrine cystadenoma
D. Nodular and cystic hidradenoma
E. Accessory breast tissue
Chondroid Syringoma
(Benign cutaneous mixed tumor)
 Pearls

- Circumscribed dermal tumor with no epidermal attachment
- Varying solid and cystic components lined by squamous, apocrine, and eccrine epithelial cells
- Chondroid myxoid background of bluish hue